It is obviously impossible to disentangle earlier from later elements, as is generally the case, now that we are dealing with a fully fledged astrology. The old constitutional arrangement limited the power which might inhere in diviners concerned with public decisions as much as other forms of political power, by diffusing it. Before then, Egypt was the less likely immediate source of information about astrology. True, the impact of such a model on astrology should not be exaggerated: These When Tiberius questioned Thrasyllus, he was impressed by his answers, which included a prediction that he, Tiberius, would succeed Augustus. That science is a unitary thing is recognised by all of its practitioners whatever their own branch of it may be. He specializes in natal astrology, synastry, the astrology of relationships. history of science has been pedagogic and legitimating.
