How are we to bring order into this multitudinous chaos and so get the deepest and widest pleasure from what we read? Engines throbbed, and carters, jamming the brakes down, pulled their horses sharp up. But still we have our responsibilities as readers and even our importance. Agitation was at her heart. Then suddenly without our willing it, for it is thus that Nature undertakes these transitions, the book will return, but differently. And the scene is recreated in To the Lighthouse when Mr. Michele B arrett Harmondsworth:
