Suka dengan ilustrasinya juga, ilustratornya sukses mengintrepretasikan dari mata pembaca nih. Just So Stories for Little Children. That shows the greatness of The God, Allah, who created it in such perfection for us to get to know . I wasn't getting the whole "whiteman's burden" vibe that some people were. Ma Alliterative terms, onomatopoeic phrases, odd pairings of words, and colourful imagery dotted each paragraph, making this both a highly visual read and one that would really shine when read aloud. But we'll get to that shortly. Apart from some stylistic whimsical quirks, such as the narrator Just So Stories calling the reader, "O my Best beloved" or commands such as, "Be quiet, O you person without any form," from the characters, they feel surprisingly modern and inventive. This book is an absolute must for your personal library. It makes me shudder. I confess I like to read the stories aloud to my cats when younger relatives are unavailable.
