Unable to resist the temptation, he hides George Washington in his pocket and brings him on the class trip to the science museum. Sep 25, Shalini Noronha marked it as to-read Shelves: Oncethere, Sam moves his desk to the front of the room, then the class moves George. When I read this book to a five year old boy on the bus, I was very surprised by how intrigued he was by the book. When Sam finally found George Washington he told his teacher and decided it was a good idea for the hamster to sit next to the teacher in class. Overall, I thought the book was a cute book that helped to show res Personal Response: After almost losing the furry thing he loved here realized how important it was will relate to the frustration of having to wait to do things, just as Sam has to wait to be the Hamster Helper.
