There are no scientific data that trauma victims dissociate and forget their abuse. Supreme Court in Stogner v California will have a significant impact on how the law handles very old cases. There are many, many other outrageous claims.

We highly recommend this book. The list of works cited is 1, and it is a wonderful bibliography to keep at hand. Stogner's two daughters, who have not spoken to each other for 20 years, both say their father abused them when they were children. They protect the accused from the consequences of charges grown stale with age, conceived from unreliable memories or based on lost or dead witnesses.

DON'T Don't claim that truth does not matter. Cohen became deeply enmeshed in writes that he was studying people both with and without PTSD who had been abused in childhood.
