The first book is fairly well written and the storyline, though appalling, kept me interested. Each night an alarm sounds signaling "the game" has started and 2 people are chosen to either fight, kill, rape, or self mutilate. You are commenting using your WordPress.

Itoldyouso!Writeacustomerreview. Gritty but instructive tale about the meaning of community If the darker side of human behavior offends you Jan 24, Charles Ray rated it liked it. Survival comes with a price, however, and he soon learns that not only are not all of the players in the Game unwilling participants, but those who have volunteered to play the Game have paid a horrible admission price. ItwasallkindofThis book was so good I could hardly put it down!! There are scenes which are quite graphic and horrific, but the most disturbing aspects are the atrocities humans are willing to commit and the nightmarish behavior we are willing to display towards each .
