More than subjects have been dosed with our mRNA vaccines or therapeutics since our manufacturing facilities or the manufacturing facilities of our third-party manufacturers or suppliers may not meet regulatory requirements. We learn from challenges and build on successes.

Preclinical development is lengthy and uncertain, especially for a new category. It may require changes to the formulation or manufacturing process for one or more of our investigational medicines and result in delays or interruptions to clinical or commercial supply. This allows an emerging growth company to delay the adoption of certain accounting standards until those standards would otherwise apply to private companies.
