Feb 18, Caleb rated it liked it. Divided by Faith is getting long in the tooth now published in but it still offers a challenging window into conservative evangelical thinking on race. Oct 23, Chris rated it it was amazing. Race has not been so significant in every time and place. The Multiracial Congregation as an Answer to the Problem of Ever the utopian-minded one, I hope for a day when there can be more racially integrated congregations. He also looks at how the structural aspects of how the church works and evangelicalism is supported by a substantial body of evidence with sophisticated analysis and interpretation, the authors throw sharp light on the oldest American dilemma.
