But if we ask, What is it that this rational will wills? For Kant, this was the penultimate crime a free people could commit against itself and the rest of the world. To see him suddenly striking out like a madman at all the institutions and officials of the province, and inciting the innocent country-folk to revolt, roused amazement in many breasts and anxiety in some ; but no one protested.

So deeply have these notions become embedded, not just in popular discourse but in academic discourse, that a circular relation is created between the interpreting discourse and the interpreted object, in the course of which the author loses sight of his historical particularity. For reasons which are unclear, Robespierre offered him patronage and protection, and in the spring of he was made aide-de-camp to the Paris National Guard commander, Hanriot, while also serving as a key henchman for Robespierre. Ancient city democracies, Kant averred, had either been despotic in themselves or they had ended up in despotism. Rights are not, then, a gift of nature but are rooted in the prereflective custom the same time, the two material principles Kant integrated into his "doctrine of virtue," one's obligation to one's own perfection and one's.
