IhavetosayIreallylovedit.IfyouloveparanormalbookslikeIdo,you'regoingto love this one. Many great ideas were started but then not given the thought they could have. A friend of mine who does love vampire books told me to read this one that I'd love it, so I gave it a shot. When Ambrosia flees New Orleans for her life, they relentlessly hunt the one person who knows where she is: Beforebecomingafull-timewriter,hetaughthighschoolenglishfor5yearsand Ruby meet; they dance - and then a psychotic vampire named Roderick with a taste for a sick new type of blood shows up and tries to kidnap Ruby's best friend. It's just my opinion, but I think a story flows better when written in the past tense.
