The Path of His Passion : walk with Christ through His Last Days on Earth by Bill Crowder

Walk with Christ Through His Last Days on Earth Bill Crowder Him, considering Him, worshiping Him—of walking with Him along The Path of His Passion.

Are you tired of feeling lost or on the wrong path? Tired of seeing your best years pass you by without knowing your true passion in life? Tired of being confused.

Many people feel those with a strong will are born with that trait. I feel that when a person is on "the Path of the Spiritual Warrior," a strong will follows naturally.

I also appreciated the specific examples he did give of how to create a more satisfying work environment, including allowing employees to be in control of their own advancement through setting up skill sets they can acquire at their own pace. I managed to get an advanced copy because I was watching Tim Ferriss and Kevin Rose's random video where each had spoken briefly about how much they enjoyed the book.

The Kindle version was poorly formatted though, as if it was made entirely by a machine. I have never read a business book before because, well, I've never really had the cause. Hsieh really knew what he was doing most of the time.

You want to build something special. Hmmm, seems you've already signed up for it. I am renewed in my passion for spending time with God for no other reason at all but to pursue an intimate relationship with Him.
