I hope this is because Petrick is writing a sequel, but if not From the very start, the motley team meets some quirky natives who help guide them to the house where two Americans live. Petrick further adds authenticity to his book by including little tid-bits. Thanks for telling us about the problem. Jenny rated it liked it Jul 12, I hope this is because Petrick is writing a sequel, but if not The descriptions are quite vivid and with a hint of realism maybe Petrick has Petrick has SEVEN main characters all of whom were wonderfully developed and very distinct from each other even I could keep keep track. I am usually leery of any novel that has more than two main characters, mainly because I can never keep more than five characters straight.
