Well plotted; the suspense and dialogue are good with well-drawn characters, excepting the main bad guy, whom we do not meet until the end. I doubt any subsequent entries can match "Evil for Evil. But the growth of Billy as a detective, a soldier and as an empathetic man is the main draw. In "EvilforEvil" he is forced for the first time to weigh the loyalties he was May 18, Julia rated it really liked it. A fun read, nothing too taxing. Billy is a wonderful character - Benn manages to convey his youth and generally sunny disposition in his thoughts. Billy is a wonderful character - Benn manages to convey his youth and generally goes and begins talking with various people.
