It is such wisdom as could not have been discovered without a revelation, according to what the prophet Isaiah says Isa. Here he prescribes humility, and a modest opinion of themselves, for the remedy of the irregularities in the church of Corinth, the divisions and contests among them: Not the wise men after the flesh, though men would apt to think that a reputation for wisdom and learning might have contributed much to the success of the gospel.

An apostle of the prince of peace must be a messenger and minister of peace. And the apostles were empowered by his Spirit to make known his mind to us. He did not proudly vaunt himself, like his opposers.

The Greeks thought it little better than stupidity to receive such a doctrine scripture is given by inspiration of God.
