I got the most funny piece of advice from the deputy head. I create and use time. Kathy, the author, is a friend of mine and I personally know how smart and good she is. Start treating yourself like a professional athlete—sleep, train, work, fuel, sleep, and repeat—and you might notice the less brain fog, more clarity, and fewer errors. It means quite a lot of weekend work. That planted a seed in my mind that teaching might be for me. If you are a seller of Kathy's intellect and great humor, this should be a classic - I have already ordered my copy and can't wait to begin reading!
