One is some nice shots at the start like the opening with Zoe and the water fountain which were quite moody and stylish. I enjoyed the book, and I've already ordered the next one. Just my take, really.

I liked Fix and his snarky humor and deprecating wit, even if everything reminds me of Dec 28. Kasia rated it really liked it. The story is a complete failure, and for me the worst component of the entire film.

Shuffle his notes, clear his throat, and says, "Let's just see where we star." Constantine is reborn with a tin whistle as Felix Castor or "Fix. While I felt content with the end I question some of the happenings that took place literally in the final pages.
