Instantly Rex Graves goes into sleuth mode to solve the murder. Rex must use his skills of intellect and detection to catch the culprit in this traditional locked-room mystery. A wedding where people keep dropping like flies. Judgment of Murder Apr 15, Linda rated it it was amazing. Once Chief Inspector Dalgerry arrives, the investigation begins in earnest. In this one, the police and Rex thought they had the murderer and then it turned a wedding event, there was a huge selection of "suspects" to choose from and considering all the secrets that were being uncovered throughout the story, it's very fitting that it wasn't easy to properly predict who the killer actually was and don't worry, I shan't reveal it here; that'd be rude as well as disre "Murder of the Bride" was another excellent story in this series of books. Leaving the reception and heading to Aston-on-Trent, Rex learns a great deal more about the secrets of the Newcombe and Thorpe families.
