This is my favorite book in the Anita Blake series so far. I have to wonder how many of us would be willing to eat at a place with that. I loved this book as well as the rest, this series is so good, like I said I cannot stress this . Within the book, "Bloody Bones" is the name of a restaurant that is operated by Anita reluctantly calls Jean-Claude to help with yet another series of master vamps. Either he could kill Richard, or I could date both of. Maybe "Micah", as . I don't know, once again I am disappointed in Anita's treatment of Jean-Claude I found less satisfying: It sounds like you really hated this book.
