The professional and academic literature is quite full with scholarly articles on nearly every aspect of organ donation policy, reflecting the importance and the difficulty of the subject. In the second, Guatemalan refugee and landscaper Ernesto Delaroca, also 32, donated a kidney to two families. Two families came together in the waiting room of a Denver hospital on May 11, to await kidney transplants for loved ones. NotEnabledWordWise: I can attest to this first hand because I had a husband that was on dialysis and received a kidney transplant - he was never one to use the transplant as an excuse to not do.
