Would you like to tell us about a lower price? I suspect that the content of this book was in fact written by Wong originally as the graphics style guide that is used internally at The Wall Street Journal and that the newspaper envisioned a new source of revenue by revising it slightly and publishing it as a book. In total, the book includes pages of actual content, which consists mostly of figures.

Hereatlastistheindispensableresourcethathashelpedthewritersandedi fact that so many figures exist is not the problem; it is in failing to explain her recommendations that she errs.
