On a trip to the white house to visit President Victoria Wilson, David finds that he can't stay away from politics for long when she asks him to head to China to deal with the Chinese and the Taliban where we get a good dose of political intrigue and action like with the previous novels. There is nothing that he can't do and everything always works out for him in what seems like very little effort. Thanks for stopping by, Deni.

A good rule of thumb is that series have a conventional name and are intentional. Z Hadley rated it it was amazing Mar 20, But it seemed like the boy just "fell out of the story".

Michelle rated it really liked it Sep 10, Series description series page at pu review has been hidden because it contains spoilers.
