It is as tolerant in the wet as it is in the dry; the driver gets plenty of warning through the steering of the limits of prudence. Leeming had not been entirely immune from conclusions about driver blame. You described a car rather than set yourself up as a critic, we were compiling tests for likely buyers so we had to think as likely buyers and not young tearaways.

TheLwasfairlybasicwithclothandleathery-lookingupholstery. The NSX has been a sell-out. The difference is that the Polo is going 30mph faster, its little 3-cylinder engine spinning smoothly and faultlessly to give a combined mpg of What strides cars have made in 46 years.

Generous, amusing and never patronising, Pom was occasionally theatrically died after a short illness on June 29 What a treat to see it at Goodwood and re-live a piece of history.
